

The Federal, Provincial and Territorial Advisory Committee on Population Health (ACPH) wishes to acknowledge the many individuals who contributed to the development and production of Toward a Healthy Future: Second Report on the Health of Canadians.

Members of the project team from the University of Toronto, Centre for Health Promotion, were: Irving Rootman (Director of the Centre), Peggy Edwards (writer), Reg Warren (analyst), Rick Wilson (coordinator) and Katherine Joly (production of earlier drafts).

Helpful reviews of earlier versions were provided by members of the ACPH Working Group and the Health Canada Working Group. The contribution of Thomas Stephens, scientific editor of the Statistical Report on the Health of Canadians, is also acknowledged.

Design, editing and production were provided by Allium Consulting Group Inc. (Ottawa). Translation was done by Communications Essema.

Project management was provided by Carol Silcoff (Health Canada), assisted by Stephanie Wilson (until September 1998) and Lynda Bottoms (until January 1999). The following Health Canada staff also contributed to project planning and implementation: Nancy Hamilton, Suzanne Desilets, Dyanne Wilson, Johanna Laporte, Jacqueline Goudal, Jerry Dybka, Roslyn Nudell, Jeffrey Pender, Elisabeth Gebhardt, Marie-Josée Thérien and Rolande Ostiguy (and others too numerous to mention).

Members of the ACPH, the ACPH Working Group and the Health Canada Working Group are listed in Appendix A. The ACPH wishes to thank John Millar for chairing the Working Group until December 1998, and Shaun Peck and Kim Elmslie for co-chairing since that date.
